Case No. 19-30088 DM.

NOTICE OF LIENS UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 546(b) BY TTR SUBSTATIONS, INC.

TTR Substations, Inc. ("TTR") is a subcontractor under Master Service Agreement No. 4400007190 (the "MSA") and related Contract Work Authorizations ("CWAs," and collectively with the MSA, the "Contract") with debtor Pacific Gas and Electric Company ("PG&E" or "Debtor"), pursuant to which TTR agreed to provide labor, equipment, services and/or materials to PG&E (collectively, the "Work"), as specified therein, including substation construction, at certain real property locations owned by PG&E, as specified therein (collectively, the "Properties").

1 Prior to and after the filing of the Debtor's bankruptcy case on January 29, 2019, TTR has
2 provided Work pursuant to the Contract at PG&E's Properties, as listed on Exhibit 1 attached
3 hereto, and has duly provided preliminary notices with respect thereto pursuant to California Civil
4 Code Sections 8100 et seq. (true and correct copies attached hereto as Exhibit 2). The amounts
5 currently owed to TTR for the Work are set forth on Exhibit 1 (not including interest and other 6 charges), with additional amounts continuing to accrue.

7 The Work under the Contract constitutes "works of improvement" as defined in 8 California Civil Code Section 8050(a). Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 8414, a 9 subcontractor may not enforce a lien unless the subcontractor records a claim of lien after the 10 subcontractor finishes work, and before ninety (90) days after the completion of the work of 11 improvement. California Civil Code Section 8460(a) provides that an action to enforce a lien
12 must be filed within 90 days after recordation of the claim of lien, and if such action is not
13 commenced within that time, then the claim of lien expires and is unenforceable.

14 Bankruptcy Code Section 546(b) (11 U.S.C. § 546(b)) provides that when applicable law
15 requires commencement of an action to perfect, maintain, or continue the perfection of an 16 interest in property, and the action was not filed prior to the bankruptcy petition date, then the 17 claimant must instead give notice within the time fixed by law for filing the action.¹ See

19 ¹ Section 546(b) provides as follows:

20 "(1) The rights and powers of a trustee under sections 544, 545, and 549 of [the Bankruptcy Code]
are subject to any generally applicable law that—

21 (A) permits perfection of an interest in property to be effective against an entity that acquires rights in such property before the date of perfection; or

22 (B) provides for the maintenance or continuation of perfection of an interest in property to be 23 effective against an entity that acquires rights in such property before the date on which action is taken to effect such maintenance or continuation.

24 (2) If— (A) a law described in paragraph (1) requires seizure of such property or commencement of an action to accomplish such perfection, or maintenance or continuation of perfection of an 25 interest in property; and

26 (B) such property has not been seized or such an action has not been commenced before the date of the filing of the petition;

27 such interest in such property shall be perfected, or perfection of such interest shall be maintained or continued, by giving notice within the time fixed by such law for such seizure or such 28 commencement."

1 Village Nurseries v. Gould (In re Baldwin Builders), 232 B.R. 406, 410–15 (B.A.P. 9th Cir.
2 1999); Village Nurseries v. Greenbaum, 101 Cal.App.4th 26 (2002).

3 Bankruptcy Code Section 362(b)(3) further provides that the filing of a bankruptcy petition
4 “does not operate as a stay . . . under subsection (a) of this section, of any act to perfect, or to 5 maintain or continue the perfection of, an interest in property to the extent that the trustee’s rights
6 and powers are subject to perfection under Section 546(b) of [the Bankruptcy Code]”

7 Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 546(b), TTR hereby gives notice to preserve, perfect,
8 maintain, and continue the perfection of its liens in lieu of the recording of claims of lien and/or
9 the commencement of actions to enforce such liens pursuant to California Civil Code Sections
10 8414 and 8460(a). This notice constitutes the legal equivalent of having filed liens and 11 commenced actions to foreclose such liens. TTR’s liens extend to the proceeds, products, rents,
12 and profits of the subject Properties. TTR reserves the right to record claims of lien in the Office
13 of the County Recorder for the Counties in the State of California where the Properties are located,
14 as permitted by Bankruptcy Code Section 362(b)(3).

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER

EVEN THOUGH YOU HAVE PAID YOUR CONTRACTOR IN FULL, if the person or firm that has given you this notice is not paid in full for labor, service, equipment, or material provided or to be provided to your construction project, a lien may lead to loss of all or part of your property. You may wish to protect yourself against this by (1) requiring your contractor to provide a signed release by the person or firm that has given you this notice before making payment to your contractor, or (2) any other method that is appropriate under the circumstances.

This notice is required by law to be served by the undersigned as a statement of your legal rights. This notice is not intended to reflect upon the financial condition of the contractor or the person employed by you on the construction project.

If you record a notice of cessation or completion of your construction project, you must within 10 days after recording, send a copy of the notice of completion to your contractor and the person or firm that has given you this notice. The notice must be sent by registered or certified mail. Failure to send the notice will extend the deadline to record a claim of lien. You are not required to send the notice if you are a residential homeowner of a dwelling containing four or fewer units.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER

EVEN THOUGH YOU HAVE PAID YOUR CONTRACTOR IN FULL, if the person or firm that has given you this notice is not paid in full for labor, service, equipment, or material provided or to be provided to your construction project, a lien may lead to loss of all or part of your property. You may wish to protect yourself against this by (1) requiring your contractor to provide a signed release by the person or firm that has given you this notice before making payment to your contractor, or (2) any other method that is appropriate under the circumstances.

This notice is required by law to be served by the undersigned as a statement of your legal rights. This notice is not intended to reflect upon the financial condition of the contractor or the person employed by you on the construction project.

If you record a notice of cessation or completion of your construction project, you must within 10 days after recording, send a copy of the notice of completion to your contractor and the person or firm that has given you this notice. The notice must be sent by registered or certified mail. Failure to send the notice will extend the deadline to record a claim of lien. You are not required to send the notice if you are a residential homeowner of a dwelling containing four or fewer units.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER

EVEN THOUGH YOU HAVE PAID YOUR CONTRACTOR IN FULL, if the person or firm that has given you this notice is not paid in full for labor, service, equipment, or material provided or to be provided to your construction project, a lien may lead to loss of all or part of your property. You may wish to protect yourself against this by (1) requiring your contractor to provide a signed release by the person or firm that has given you this notice before making payment to your contractor, or (2) any other method that is appropriate under the circumstances.

This notice is required by law to be served by the undersigned as a statement of your legal rights. This notice is not intended to reflect upon the financial condition of the contractor or the person employed by you on the construction project.

If you record a notice of cessation or completion of your construction project, you must within 10 days after recording, send a copy of the notice of completion to your contractor and the person or firm that has given you this notice. The notice must be sent by registered or certified mail. Failure to send the notice will extend the deadline to record a claim of lien. You are not required to send the notice if you are a residential homeowner of a dwelling containing four or fewer units.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER

EVEN THOUGH YOU HAVE PAID YOUR CONTRACTOR IN FULL, if the person or firm that has given you this notice is not paid in full for labor, service, equipment, or material provided or to be provided to your construction project, a lien may lead to loss of all or part of your property. You may wish to protect yourself against this by (1) requiring your contractor to provide a signed release by the person or firm that has given you this notice before making payment to your contractor, or (2) any other method that is appropriate under the circumstances.

This notice is required by law to be served by the undersigned as a statement of your legal rights. This notice is not intended to reflect upon the financial condition of the contractor or the person employed by you on the construction project.

If you record a notice of cessation or completion of your construction project, you must within 10 days after recording, send a copy of the notice of completion to your contractor and the person or firm that has given you this notice. The notice must be sent by registered or certified mail. Failure to send the notice will extend the deadline to record a claim of lien. You are not required to send the notice if you are a residential homeowner of a dwelling containing four or fewer units.

Dated: 11th day of September, 2018.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER

EVEN THOUGH YOU HAVE PAID YOUR CONTRACTOR IN FULL, if the person or firm that has given you this notice is not paid in full for labor, service, equipment, or material provided or to be provided to your construction project, a lien may lead to loss of all or part of your property. You may wish to protect yourself against this by (1) requiring your contractor to provide a signed release by the person or firm that has given you this notice before making payment to your contractor, or (2) any other method that is appropriate under the circumstances.

This notice is required by law to be served by the undersigned as a statement of your legal rights. This notice is not intended to reflect upon the financial condition of the contractor or the person employed by you on the construction project.

If you record a notice of cessation or completion of your construction project, you must within 10 days after recording, send a copy of the notice of completion to your contractor and the person or firm that has given you this notice. The notice must be sent by registered or certified mail. Failure to send the notice will extend the deadline to record a claim of lien. You are not required to send the notice if you are a residential homeowner of a dwelling containing four or fewer units.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER

EVEN THOUGH YOU HAVE PAID YOUR CONTRACTOR IN FULL, if the person or firm that has given you this notice is not paid in full for labor, service, equipment, or material provided or to be provided to your construction project, a lien may lead to loss of all or part of your property. You may wish to protect yourself against this by (1) requiring your contractor to provide a signed release by the person or firm that has given you this notice before making payment to your contractor, or (2) any other method that is appropriate under the circumstances.

This notice is required by law to be served by the undersigned as a statement of your legal rights. This notice is not intended to reflect upon the financial condition of the contractor or the person employed by you on the construction project.

If you record a notice of cessation or completion of your construction project, you must within 10 days after recording, send a copy of the notice of completion to your contractor and the person or firm that has given you this notice. The notice must be sent by registered or certified mail. Failure to send the notice will extend the deadline to record a claim of lien. You are not required to send the notice if you are a residential homeowner of a dwelling containing four or fewer units.
